GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Robert Nardello, Grand Knight

Brother Knights,

I hope many of you were able to enjoy and participate, our parish Pascal Triduum that recalled for us the passion, death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus. The Mass of the Lord's Supper, Good Friday services, our magnificent Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday, were all beautiful celebrations meant to be shared and enjoyed with our parish. Even as a child Easter was always a special day for me; one shared with our extended family, and was always the most special holiday of the year for my brother and I. Relatives we hadn't seen during the year suddenly appeared to share the special treats prepared for us by mother and grand mother, just for this day. What a wonderful celebration, but like so many others it passed too quickly and left us feeling sad and cheated. Left overs too numerous to fit into our refrigerator and lamed, chocolate bunnies with an ear or limb missing were the only surviving remnants of a wonderful day. What a shame we didn't yet understand the beauty of this holyday.

We understand now that Easter and its preparation isn't just a holiday but a holy season. stretching from Lent, to Maundy Thursday, to Easter Sunday, and then to the feast of Pentecost. Obviously, this is not an invitation to party until Pentecost but rather to awaken in us the anticipation and celebration of the best Easter gift ever; the gift of the Holy Spirit. And that my brothers, is my heartfelt Easter wish to each of you and your families; that you enjoy the entire Easter season in anticipation of the renewal of the Holy Spirit in each of us.

Sadly, during this wonderful season, we're all still adjusting to the passing of our brother, friend and Grand Knight, Sir Victor Libetti. I thank you for the trust you've placed in me to carry us through this Columbian year, but we can best honor his memory by seeing that his vision for a new and better council is fulfilled; a council more unified with its parish, its parishioners, and its ministries. I hope I can count on your support to see these programs through to their successful completion. I thank you for your many words of encouragement and promise of support, but I hope you appreciate you can help best by all of us pulling this load together.

This is not a position I sought, but I promise that for the balance of this Columbian year, I will perform the duties of Grand Knight to the best of my ability. With your help, I'm confident I can continue the work of our council to assure that we fulfill our obligations and commitments to our church, council, mission and the Knights of Columbus.

Vivat Jesus

Minutes of April Meeting as Recorded April 12, 2019

Prior to the commencement of our Business Meeting, a presentation was made to the council by Jerry Skorch, Chaplain to the "New Jersey Mission of Honor" on their activities on behalf of our deceased and forgotten veterans of war.

Subsequently, the meeting was called to order at 7:35 pm by DGK Bob Nardello. A moment of silence and short prayer was offered for our fallen brother and Grand Knight Vic Libetti, followed by the Lord's prayer, and flag salute.

The Gospel was read by our DGK and the Roll Call of Officers was conducted by Recorder Tom Kiley. All Officers were present with the exception of Treasurer Dean DeRose, 2-year Trustee Joe Henderson, and 1-year Trustee Eduardo Fuentecilla.

The DGK reported that the minutes of the previous meeting had been previously transmitted to the membership at large prior to the meeting, and asked if the membership had any changes or additions. Since there were no changes or additions, the minutes were approved as distributed.

Chancellor, Mike Mancano reported there were no new membership applications, but that there was an Admission Degree scheduled for Thursday, April 25th at St. Isaac Jogues. ## Pope Benedict XVI blames sex abuse scandal on 1960s sexual revolution, claims "homosexual cliques" were in seminaries Retired Pope Benedict XVI has published an analysis on the Catholic Church's clergy sex abuse scandal, blaming it on the sexual revolution of the 1960s and church laws that protected priests. Benedict also claimed that "homosexual cliques" once existed in seminaries.

Benedict provided no basis for his claim about the cliques, which he said "acted more or less openly and significantly changed the climate in the seminaries." Instead, he described a seminary in southern Germany where aspiring priests lived with candidates for the lay ministry, some of whom were married or had girlfriends, and Benedict said, "The climate in this seminary could not provide support for preparation to the priestly vocation."

The one-time head of the church also claimed that pedophilia was "diagnosed as allowed and appropriate" during the '60s. The essay immediately raised eyebrows, seeming to interfere with or even contradict Pope Francis' own efforts to confront one of the most critical issues facing the church.

One church historian called Benedict's essay "catastrophically irresponsible" because it conflicted with Francis' own efforts to lead the church out of the sex abuse crisis. Benedict in 2013 had said he planned to retire to a lifetime of penance and prayer and would leave Francis to guide the church.

U.S. church analysts said the essay, published in the German monthly Klerusblatt and translated into English in several Catholic news outlets, was both flawed in content and problematic on a universal church level, exacerbating existing divisions in the church that have emerged between supporters of Francis and Catholics nostalgic for Benedict's doctrine-minded papacy. In his introduction, Benedict said both the Vatican secretary of state and Francis had given him permission to publish it.

The Vatican press office confirmed it was written by Benedict. In the essay, Benedict traced the start of the clergy abuse crisis to the sexual revolution of the 1960s, citing the appearance of sex in films in his native Bavaria.

He also blamed the crisis on failures of moral theology in that era, as well as church laws that gave undue protection to accused priests. Benedict wrote that during the 1980s and 1990s, "the right to a defense (for priests) was so broad as to make a conviction nearly impossible."

As Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger, Benedict reformed those laws in 2001 to make it easier to remove priests who abused children. Benedict took a hard line against clerical sex abuse as the Vatican's conservative doctrine chief, and later as pope, defrocking hundreds of priests accused of raping and molesting children.

"Why did pedophilia reach such proportions? Ultimately, the reason is the absence of God," he wrote. Francis has blamed the scandal on a clerical culture in the church that raises priests above the laity.

Villanova University theologian Massimo Faggioli said the essay was thin in its analysis by effectively attributing the scandal to the sexual revolution. He said it omitted key cases, such as the Legion of Christ founder's pedophilia, which began well before then.

Supreme Knight's Message by Carl A. Anderson

Knights of Columbus pledges $100,000 in aid for Sri Lankan Terror Victims

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 22, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- The following is a statement by Carl Anderson, CEO and Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus on the Easter Sunday terrorist attacks in Sri Lanka

"The Knights of Columbus stands in solidarity with our Christian brothers and sisters in Sri Lanka during this time of trial. Terrorist attacks like those on Easter Sunday are the acts of those who reject the sanctity of life, human rights and religious freedom. In addition to our prayers, the Knights of Columbus is sending $100,000 to Cardinal Ranjith in Colombo, Sri Lanka, for his use in the rebuilding and repair of his Christian community in the aftermath of this act of terrorism."

"Globally, it is well documented that Christians are the most persecuted religious group today. Now is the time for every country to take concrete steps to protect their minority populations, including Christians, and to stop this persecution and slaughter. Every country should protect its religious minorities, and freedom-loving countries must demand nothing less of their neighbors. Talk of human rights and religious freedom rings hollow when people are killed for nothing more than worshipping the one who taught us to love one another."

Knights of Columbus Supports Sixth Circuit Ultrasound Ruling

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 9, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Supreme Knight Carl A. Anderson has offered the following response to the Sixth Circuit U.S. Court of Appeals decision to uphold Kentucky's Ultrasound Informed Consent Act, which requires abortion doctors to show ultrasound images of a baby to the mother.

"Over the past 10 years, the Knights of Columbus has donated 1,038 ultrasound machines to pro-life pregnancy centers in all 50 U.S. states and internationally. Ultrasound machines provide a window to the womb, allowing a mother to see her developing child and to hear her baby's heartbeat. This technology can be credited for making a difference in the lives of thousands of women and their babies. This initiative is the Knights' greatest humanitarian effort, and we applaud the Sixth Circuit U.S. Court of Appeals for defending the validity of Kentucky's courageous Ultrasound Informed Consent Act." -- Carl A. ## HOLY WEEK MESSAGE

Dear Friends in Christ,

As followers of Christ and as members of the Roman Catholic Church, there is no period of time that more perfectly represents the essence of our faith than Holy Week. It is the culmination of our journey begun on Ash Wednesday, whereby we reflect on our humanity and consider intently our life's motivation and willingness to accept the call of Jesus Christ to leave all that we have – to empty ourselves – so that we might become his disciples and carry his message of forgiveness and unconditional love to a troubled world.

Facing as we are a decisive moment in the life of the Church, we know and must assert that the worst elements that define this crisis did not ultimately define us as baptized and redeemed daughters and sons of God our Father.

This is not to say that we do not accept the harsh and indisputable facts as we know them, nor resist acknowledging the colossal failings that have brought us to this point. It is that despite this crisis we have the courage to continue undaunted in our witness to the power of God's love and the abiding grace of the Risen Lord to heal, comfort and to renew us.

The long, storied history of our Church evidences periods of growth and holiness as well as times of struggle and failing. And yet, history also makes clear the purity of the Gospel of Jesus Christ that has never been tainted. It is, this Gospel, the summons to confront our humanity with all the good and bad it entails, and to allow God's forgiveness to change us so we can accept God's invitation to begin anew.

It is also the summons to live for others – to give of ourselves in ways that inspire hope and joy and which provide comfort, care, understanding and always forgiveness. Indeed, it is a summons to be Christ for others.

This must be our focus and our work, especially during these difficult days. We must stay together in mutual support and encouragement, bearing witness to the true essence of what defines us as followers of Jesus Christ and as Roman Catholics. As Simon Peter attests in John's Gospel: "Lord, to whom shall we go? You alone have the words of eternal life."

In my travels across this local Church I am constantly inspired by the lively and active faith that is so evident. In countless ways, you and your families, your fellow parishioners, our young people, those who are retired and still determined to make a difference – all of you demonstrate each and every day the presence of the Risen Lord and his Spirit among us.

Your witness is even now reinvigorating our Church, reminding us again of what is central to our faith and what it truly means to be bearers of Christ to friend and stranger alike, to our communities and to society at large. Please continue to be generous with your time and your service. You are at the heart of the Church's life and provide clear evidence that God is true and that his love abides in us.

I wish for each of you, your families and loved ones a joyous and holy Easter. Know that you are constantly in my prayers and I humbly ask that you remember me in yours.

May the Risen Lord fill us all with his strength, his redeeming love and the power of his Holy Spirit.

Yours in Christ,

+William E. Lori

Pope Francis' message

Pope Francis at Easter Vigil: Ask Christ to roll back the stone blocking your heart

Vatican City, Apr 20, 2019 / 02:16 pm (CNA).- In his Easter Vigil homily, Pope Francis said that the Risen Christ desires to “roll back the stone” that blocks the entrance to one’s heart, so that God’s light and love can enter.

“The Lord calls us to get up, to rise at his word, to look up and to realize that we were made for heaven, not for earth, for the heights of life and not for the depths of death,” Pope Francis said in St. Peter’s Basilica April 20.

“Each of us is called tonight to rediscover in the Risen Christ the one who rolls back from our heart the heaviest of stones. So let us first ask: What is the stone that I need to remove, what is its name?” he asked.

Pope Francis said the “stone of sin” blocks many hearts. “Sin is looking for life among the dead, for the meaning of life in things that pass away,” he explained.

“Sin seduces; it promises things easy and quick, prosperity and success, but then leaves behind only solitude and death,” he said, adding that with Christ we can pass “from self-centredness to communion, from desolation to consolation, from fear to confidence.”

“Why not prefer Jesus, the true light, to the glitter of wealth, career, pride and pleasure? Why not tell the empty things of this world that you no longer live for them, but for the Lord of life?” Francis asked.

The Vatican Easter Vigil Mass began with the blessing of the new fire in the atrium and the blessing of the paschal candle. The pope then processed into the dark church carrying the lit candle to signify the light of Christ coming to dispel the darkness.

“Today, let us remember how Jesus first called us, how he overcame our darkness, our resistance, our sins, and how he touched our hearts with his word,” he said.

Francis warned against having a “museum faith” instead of a living, “Easter faith.” Christ is “a person living today,” he said, not only a person from the past. “We encounter him in life.”

“Let us not keep our faces bowed to the ground in fear, but raise our eyes to the risen Christ. His gaze fills us with hope, for it tells us that we are loved unflinchingly, and that however much we make a mess of things, his love remains unchanged,” he said.

Pope Francis described Christ’s love as the “one non-negotiable certitude we have in this life.”

“The Lord loves your life, even when you are afraid to look at it,” he said.

“In Easter he shows you how much he loves that life: even to the point of ... experiencing anguish, abandonment, death and hell, in order to emerge triumphant to tell you: ‘You are not alone; put your trust in me!’” he continued.

During the Easter Vigil Mass, Pope Francis administered the Sacraments of Initiation – Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist -- to eight people, from Italy, Ecuador, Peru, Albania, and Indonesia.

“Dear brothers and sisters: let us put the Living One at the centre of our lives,” Pope Francis said. “Let us seek him in all things and above all things. With him, we will rise again

Meetings and Ceremonies

Brothers, please show proper respect to our parish home, to the order, and to our council at all times. Keep in mind we are grateful guests of the church, school and parishioners, and part of an international, fraternal organization charged with social programs that benefit our church community. As such, there is a decorum and respect that is due church and school property, our organization and its officers.

Ceremonials of the Order should be recognized by the brotherhood, well attended, and participate in when requested. Members should arrive on time for the formal opening of the meeting, sit in the seats arranged and provided by the council, appropriately participate in the meeting, conduct themselves within the established meeting protocol, and remain until the meeting has been formally adjourned.

We are more than the fund-raising events of our council, and certainly more than an opportunity to meet socially once a month. We need our membership to actively participate in the business of the council, to attend meetings, to help plan programs, and to support our efforts to increase our membership by attending membership drives and exemplifications.
