GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Michael Mancano, Grand Knight

The Few Leading the Many: A Call to Action

Brother Knights,

In my short time in Council 6530 I have witnessed amazing commitment to the cause from a core group of Brother Knights. Many Brother Knights have initiated programs and continued to coordinate them for many years. I also have seen new programs such as the Car Show and the Pizza Socials, to name a few, that were initiated recently and have thrived. However, when I work these events next to my Brother Knights I can't help but notice that it is the same core group of Knights that do the shopping for the events, publicize the events, staff the kitchen or buffet lines, and organize and carry out the myriad of responsibilities necessary for a successful event. This Grand Knight's Message is NOT addressed to those Brother Knights. I thank you for your commitment and inspiration.

I am calling on everyone who is a Brother Knight who has not attended a meeting or worked at one of our events. My rough estimate is approximately 40 Brother Knights plan, organize, work, and clean-up after events. Not every Knight is at all of our events, we all know that is not required. I'm calling on the approximately 160 Brother Knights who we don't see at business meetings, planning meetings, and events to rededicate themselves to the works of the church and brotherhood of the Knights by participating in at least one new event this year. We need your ideas, hands, and commitment to the cause. If you are not interested in the mission of the Knights and the charity that we successfully achieve, then why have you joined the Knights? I invite you to a meeting. You'll see the time commitment for an event is not onerous. We'll take any and all help and ideas you can contribute.

Brother Knights who have not been active are currently being contacted by the Retention and Engagement Committee. This committee will contact Brother Knights regarding back dues, upcoming programs and meetings.

Hope to see you soon.

Vivat Jesus

Minutes of Meeting as Recorded September 6, 2019

Recorder, Tom Kiley

Meeting called to order at 7:30 pm by GK, Michael Mancano.

- The Opening Prayer and Pledge of Allegiance was recited by the council at large.
- The roll call of officers was conducted by Recorder, Gary Toothman. All Officers were present with the exception of Recorder Tom Kiley, Financial Secretary John Carroll, and First year Trustee Joseph Henderson,
- The Gospel of Luke for Sunday, September 8 was read by Deacon Jim.
- The GK reported that the minutes of the previous meeting had been previously transmitted to the membership at large prior to the meeting and asked if the membership had any changes or additions. The minutes were approved as distributed without modification after a question by Jim Stanley concerning the polo shirt purchase conversation from last month's meeting. The minutes were accurate and did not reflect an approval of a vote to provide polo shirts to new members. A vote did not occur on this issue.

Worthy Recorder: Gary Toothman for Tom Kiley

- No report.

Chancellor Report, Al Lutner

- Scheduling of the exemplification degree for Brian Labetti and Brian Gershon is forthcoming.

GK Report, Michael Mancano

- We have a full calendar of events for the coming fraternal year, and we are open for your suggestions for additional activities and events planning meeting in the cafeteria at 7:30 on September 10th to discuss activities and events. All brothers are welcome.

Supreme Knight's Message by Carl A. Anderson

THE CHALLENGE OF REFORM AND PRESERVING UNITY WITHIN THE CHURCH CALLS FOR NATURAL AND SUPERNATURAL VIRTUE

EARLIER THIS YEAR, I attended the consecration of a beautifully restored church. As the Blessed Sacrament was placed in the new tabernacle, I thought of the Ark of the Covenant, which was the place of God's presence among his people, beginning in the time of Moses. Now, in the New Covenant, the Lord's true presence is a reality wherever Mass is celebrated and wherever the Eucharist is reserved.

As Catholics, we may take this reality for granted today, but the initial reaction to Jesus' discourse on the bread of life was one of disbelief — the Jews saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" and his disciples saying, "This is a hard saying, who can listen to it?" Most of his disciples actually left, and Jesus then turned to the Apostles: "Will you also go away?" As we know, Peter answered, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life" (Jn 6:68).

Jesus' question remains painfully real in light of the devastating scandals that have recently rocked the Church and the declining church attendance among Catholics. And if Jesus' question has new relevance, so does Peter's answer. If we were to turn away from the presence of the Lord, where would we go?

There is a growing trend, especially among young people, to say that we can be "spiritual" while also rejecting organized religion. Pope Benedict XVI addressed this issue in his encyclical Spe Salvi (Saved in Hope) when he asked, "Is Christian hope individualistic?" He answered that "salvation has always been considered a 'social' reality," adding that we are called "to a lived union with a 'people,' and for each individual it can only be attained with this 'we'" (14).

We see this social reality, this unity within the Church, most beautifully in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament in the hundreds of thousands of tabernacles throughout the world. And this call to communion is especially important for us as Knights of Columbus, committed this year in a special way to the principle of unity.

As we pray for and seek renewal in our Church today, I am reminded what the 18th-century British statesman Edmund Burke said about institutions in need of reform. He argued that the virtue of prudence is necessary to find the right combination of "conservation and correction."

We should keep in mind Burke's recommendation of prudence. In the foreseeable future, however, the most important of the cardinal virtues may not be prudence but fortitude, which the Catechism of the Catholic Church defines as "the moral virtue that ensures firmness in difficulties and constancy in the pursuit of the good" (1808).

And as St. Thomas Aquinas taught, fortitude is dependent upon yet another virtue: justice — certainly today, justice for the victims of sexual abuse and their families as well as justice for the People of God.

Indeed, all four of the cardinal virtues — prudence, justice, fortitude and temperance — will be necessary to achieve "correction" while preserving the unity of the Church.

In Spe Salvi, Pope Benedict further reminded us: “God is the foundation of hope. ... His love alone gives us the possibility of soberly persevering day by day, without ceasing to be spurred on by hope” (31).

In the days ahead, therefore, let us rededicate ourselves to the practice of the moral virtues and pray for an increase in faith, hope and charity. In this way, we will continue to move forward, meeting whatever challenges may arise.

The Lord remains in the midst of his people, and he will never abandon us. He calls us to unity. He calls us to virtue. And in him, we will find a sure path for renewal.

Vivat Jesus!

IN THE FACE OF TRIALS, CHRIST CALLS THE CHURCH TO DEEPER FAITH IN HIS POWER TO SAVE US

WHEN I BOARD an airplane, I hope the flight will be smooth. No matter how much I've flown, I'm nervous when the plane bounces around and the flight attendants are instructed to take a seat for the rest of the flight. Some passengers take the turbulence in stride; others are openly frightened. Still others are equally frightened but try not to show it. I'm in this last category. It wouldn't do for a man wearing a Roman collar to get frantic. Instead, I discreetly pull out my rosary and ask the Blessed Virgin Mary to intercede for the pilot, the crew and the passengers (including myself). When the plane lands safely, I offer a prayer of thanksgiving.

Turbulence is an unwelcome experience, which causes heart palpitations and can endanger life and limb. But it also serves a purpose. It reminds us that we really are flying 35,000 feet above the earth, and that's not without risk. Better to keep those seat belts buckled! As noted, turbulence is also good for one's prayer life. As a passenger, I'm in the pilot's hands, but I'm ultimately in God's hands: "Jesus, I trust in you!"

The unnerving ups and downs of turbulence also serve as a good metaphor for life itself. As we begin each day, we hope it will be productive and tranquil. We often pray for lives that are calm and undisturbed. Yet, as we utter such prayers, Scripture rings in our ears. For example, in the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus speaks of wars, famines and earthquakes, and he warns of persecution and even death because of his name (cf. 24:6-9). In John's Gospel, the Lord says, "In the world you will have trouble, but take courage, I have conquered the world" (16:33).

We experience turbulence in many ways, both in everyday life and in our life of faith. Sometimes, it's the result of our own folly, as when we betray the trust of others or engage in selfdestructive behaviors. At other times, such turbulence is not of our own making. Life's journey can be rough due to illness, financial problems, unemployment, marital discord and controversy of all sorts.

In my life as a priest and bishop, I certainly experience spiritual turbulence. It's not that God's consolations and graces aren't abundant; it's not that the signs of his goodness are lacking. But many of the problems I encounter, especially in this particularly turbulent time for the Church, are deeply distressing.

The Church is in the grip of a global crisis of trust because of clergy sexual abuse and the failures of some bishops. This crisis has shaken the faith of many. Some have stopped going to Sunday Mass; others have left the Church altogether. Corrective measures once deemed effective don't seem to have lessened scandals in the Church.

In the midst of this, what are we to do? Are we simply to grip the nearest pew and hold on tightly? Rather, we need to pray for all we're worth. Sometimes, all I can do is to repeat over and over again: "Jesus, I trust in you!" Both clergy and laity also need to speak their mind about the scandals and do whatever they can to help the Church restore trust and continue its mission of faith, worship and service.

Just as airline passengers see turbulence as a bad thing, we usually recognize life's problems as bad. But turbulence in our Church and in our personal lives also serves a purpose. It reminds us that we are not fully in charge. It reminds us that we need to pray and express in faith our dependence upon God. It builds up perseverance.

And it also confirms the need to change course, to take corrective actions — not looking for the smooth air of untroubled comfort but for a pathway of truth and courage through present trials. Ultimately, the air, or wind, we must seek is divine — the Holy Spirit, who carries us to everlasting life.

Pope Francis' Message

Contemplate God and Seek Him, Especially in the Poor

Pope Francis on Saturday encouraged members of the Carmelite Order in their contemplation of God by seeking Him in the poor and in accompanying people in their friendship with God by teaching them to pray and live their faith in the ways of the Holy Spirit.

He made the exhortation to some 100 members of the Order of the Carmelites, formally known as the Order of the Brothers of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Mount Carmel, who are holding their General Chapter in Rome. They are discussing the theme, "You are my witnesses' from one generation to the next: called to be faithful to our Carmelite charism".

The Carmelite charism consists in living their fidelity to Jesus and serving Him faithfully through a commitment to seek the face of the living God through prayer, fraternity and service. In this regard, the Pope offered them three lines of action.

Fidelity and contemplation

The first is fidelity and contemplation. The Carmelite mission, he said, is fruitful to the extent that it is rooted in their personal relationship with God which is marked by solitude, contemplation and detachment from the world. The Carmelite way of living contemplation, he said, prepares them to serve the people of God through any ministry or apostolate, having at heart especially the spiritual journey of people.

Accompaniment and prayer

Regarding the second line of action, accompaniment and prayer, the Pope pointed out that anxiety about a thousand things about God, without being rooted in Him, will sooner or later find us losing Him on the way.

According to Saint Mary Magdalene de' Pazzi, this happens when "lukewarmness" creeps in consecrated life and the evangelical counsels become only a routine and the love of Jesus is no longer the centre of life. This also happens when worldliness creeps in.

As men who live more "inside" than "outside" themselves, Pope Francis encouraged them to accompany people to "make friends" with God. This, however, he clarified, it is not a question of teaching people to accumulate prayers, but of being men and women of faith, friends of God, who know how to walk the ways of the spirit.

In this, they should watch out against reducing the religious community to "workgroups". Instead, community life generates serenity, attracts the people of God and infects the joy of the Risen Christ.

Tenderness and compassion

Lastly, Pope Francis encouraged the Carmelites to have a tender and compassionate heart. "If one day, around us, there are no more sick and hungry people, abandoned and despised, the minores [littles ones] of which your begging tradition speaks," he pointed out, "it is not because they are not there, but simply because we do not see them."

In this regard, Carmelite Blessed Angelo Paoli says, "Whoever loves God must seek him in the poor", in the "brothers of Jesus". One must be wary of the contemplative who is not compassionate, the Pope said, adding, "tenderness, in the style of Jesus, shelters us from "pseudomysticism", "weekend solidarity" and the temptation to stay away from the wounds of Christ's body. "The wounds of Jesus are still visible today in the bodies of our brothers and sisters who are stripped, humiliated and enslaved," the Pope said.

Virtus Training (Diocesan, Church and School Requirement)

We continue to urge all brothers to complete their VIRTUS training, fingerprinting and background checks. New training sessions are available throughout the year. This training is mandated by the diocese, church, and school for everyone in contact with or participating in programs with youth, elderly, and special needs individuals. You may register for one of the scheduled VIRTUS training sessions by visiting the VIRTUS.org website, registering a login-id and password, and selecting a training session and location that fits your schedule.

There is a new form that must be used to complete your fingerprinting and background check. Before scheduling your appointment, please see your DGK/PD for the proper form.

Safe Environment Training (K of C Supreme Requirement)

The Safe Environment Program safeguards children and other vulnerable persons, assures members and their families that we maintain a safe environment, protects members from awkward situations, misunderstandings, and appearances of impropriety, builds trust with arch/dioceses and parishes, and protects the good name of the Knights of Columbus.

The training is mandated for: Grand Knights, Program Directors, Community Directors, and Family Directors. You can also help our council protect those at risk by registering for the training on a voluntary basis, even if not required by your position. To register for either mandated or volunteer training in Supreme's Safe Environment, place the following link into your browser: <https://www.kofc.org/un/en/members/programs/youth-activities/safe-environment-program.html>

Meetings and Ceremonies

Brothers, please show proper respect to our parish home, to the order, and to our council at all times. Keep in mind we are grateful guests of the church, school and parishioners, and part of an international, fraternal organization charged with social programs that benefit our church community. As such, there is a decorum and respect that is due church and school property, our organization and its officers.

Ceremonials of the Order should be recognized by the brotherhood, well attended, and participate in when requested. Members should arrive on time for the formal opening of the meeting, sit in the seats arranged and provided by the council, appropriately participate in the meeting, conduct themselves within the established meeting protocol, and remain until the meeting has been formally adjourned.

We are more than the fund-raising events of our council, and certainly more than an opportunity to meet socially once a month. We need our membership to actively participate in the business of the council, to attend meetings, to help plan programs, and to support our efforts to increase our membership by attending membership drives and exemplifications.

Green Book

Director: Peter Farrelly

Stars: Viggo Mortensen, Mahershala Ali, Linda Cardellini

In 1962, Tony "Tony Lip" Vallelonga, a tough bouncer, is looking for work when his nightclub is closed for renovations. The most promising offer turns out to be the driver for the African-American classical pianist Don Shirley for a concert tour into the Deep South states. Although hardly enthused at working for a black man, Tony accepts the job and they begin their trek armed with The Negro Motorist Green Book, a travel guide for safe travel through America's racial segregation. Together, the snobbishly erudite pianist and the crudely practical bouncer can barely get along with their clashing attitudes to life and ideals. However, as the disparate pair witness and endure America's appalling injustices on the road, they find a newfound respect for each other's talents and start to face them together. In doing so, they would nurture a friendship and understanding that would change both their lives.

Scheduled for Tuesday November November 5th @ 7:30 pm in Pedata Hall. Come Hungry! Lite refreshments will be served. Plan to be fed not just with food.
