FIFTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME/2018

FLY, JOB, FLY!

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

I have to be honest with you: I don't like our first reading this Sunday. It's from the Book of Job. Job is having a bad day. Job had a lot of bad days. On the day our Eagles are playing for the Super Bowl, I don't want to hear about Job and his life of woe and misery.

Please don't get me wrong. I am not superstitious or anything like that. I don't wear a lucky t-shirt or hat or sit in the same chair on game day. (Although it is true the Eagles play better when I watch the game while pacing the floor eating Fritos. Just an observation.) But I would have preferred hearing that nice reading from Isaiah about soaring like eagles.

Here's the thing: like many of you I grew up here in the Delaware Valley. I go all the way back to the Joe Kuharich, Norm Sneed and Franklin Field days (I know I don't look that old!). While waiting for a Super Bowl victory there have been many disappointments, so, like Job, it's easy for us Philly fans to get a little gloomy and think the worst from time to time.

Maybe it helps to know that Job's life turns around and actually has a happy ending. But through his trials and tribulations, and a lot of conversing with God, Job gains a new perspective. He comes to see that God is much bigger than he ever thought, that God is bigger than his house and his farm, bigger than mountains and the ocean, bigger than the earth and beyond the earth. Bigger than ... (gulp) ...

Bigger than football.

Trust me, I'm still going to watch the big game — pacing, stuffing my face with Fritos. I'm gonna scream and yell and cheer. I hope you do, too. And I hope everyone has a great, fun, Super Bowl Sunday. And no matter what the outcome (in fact, especially if we come away with a W), let's keep ole Job's lesson in mind. Let's keep everything in perspective.

Okay, having said all that:

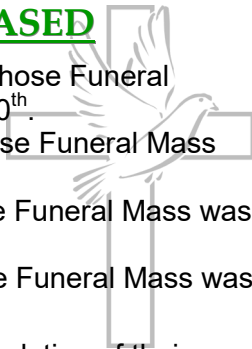

Go Birds!

GRATEFUL HEARTS

Dear Parishioners,

Peace! Once again I am deeply touched by your presence in my life. Be assured that your countless expressions of sympathy on the death of my sister, Peg, will long be remembered. My family and I were overwhelmed by the number of people who were able to attend Peg's viewing and funeral despite the snow and cold. Know that every hug, prayer, flower, donation, Mass card, dinner, etc. is and will continue to be treasured.

Be assured of my prayer for you and your loved ones.

Gratefully,
Sister Pat

ADULT FAITH

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION & BENEDICTION

~ St. Raphael Kalinowski, O.C.D.

Tuesday evening's

Eucharistic Adoration 5:00pm – 6:30pm
Benediction 6:30pm

During Eucharistic Adoration we "watch and wait"; we remain "silent" in His presence and open ourselves to His Graces which flow from the Eucharist. By worshipping the Eucharistic Jesus, we become what God wants us to be! Like a magnet, The Lord draws us to Himself and gently transforms us.

AGELESS WISDOM: LIFETIME LESSONS FROM THE BIBLE

Thursday, February 8th
7:30pm Pedata Hall

What lessons might we learn about wisdom and growing older from the Bible? Is it true that wisdom comes with age or can we learn about wisdom from young people, too? Join us as we draw lessons from famous (and not so famous) Biblical stories to learn how to gather wisdom and appreciate her gifts of blessings and burdens, patience and laughter, reaping and sowing. We will gather in Pedata Hall to be enriched and entertained by Chris Bellitto. Christopher M. Bellitto, Ph.D. is Professor of History at Kean University in Union, NJ. He is also a frequent public speaker and media commentator on church history and contemporary Catholicism and is the author of several books.
