FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT/2018

WRITTEN ON THE HEART

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Perhaps you have known heartache. Perhaps your heart has burst at the seams with joy or pride. Perhaps your heart has been profoundly moved by injustice or a terrible wrong ... or skipped a beat in fear. Perhaps love and mercy have opened your heart, re-shaped it, enlarged it.

Through the prophet Jeremiah, God tells Israel He will write His law upon their heart. Through Ezekiel, God says He will give them a new heart. He will place His Spirit within them. This is all fulfilled, of course, in Christ Jesus.

God knows your heart ... the pain, sadness, and the deepest hurt; the joy and the delight. He knows what upsets your heart and what moves it.

During Holy Week (which begins next week with Palm Sunday), give your heart to Jesus. Let him write upon your heart: "I know you. I love you."

Plan to participate in what we call the Paschal Triduum — the Sacred Three Days. The schedule of our liturgies can be found in the center of this bulletin. Make these days — Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Sunday — the center of your year. They will give you a new heart. The heart of Christ.

Good Lent!

Lenten Connections

Daily Reflections to help you pray, journal, connect with God, others and yourself this Lent.

Sunday, March 18: 5th Sunday of Lent

"The days are coming," the Lord says in today's first reading from Jeremiah today. Are you ready for the Holy Days about to come? Come to Fr. Rich's presentation on the Sacred Triduum this Wednesday, 7:30pm, and learn more about the days we live for: Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter.

Monday, March 19

On this Feast of St. Joseph, we remember the faithful husband of Mary and devoted foster father of Jesus. Joseph is a powerful example of a hidden life of quiet, loving service to God and those in his care. Today we remember our own Sisters of St. Joseph and give thanks for their lives of caring service. St. Joseph, please pray for us to LISTEN to God and seek the holiness that comes from unseen acts of humble service on behalf of our "dear neighbor."

Tuesday, March 20

Fred Rogers, host of the children's program Mr. Rogers' Neighborhood, was born on this day in 1928. He entered seminary after college and was ordained a Presbyterian Minister. Reverend Fred Rogers, a member of the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, had a profound effect on the lives of millions of people across the country through his ministry to children and families. Mister Rogers promoted and supported Christian values in the public media with his demonstration of unconditional love and his ability to communicate with children and to help them understand and deal with the difficult questions in their lives. Speak to your children about our Christian values. Bring your children to church this and every Sunday. Now more than ever, our children need God in their lives!!

Wednesday, March 21

If you remain in my word, you will truly be my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (Jn 8:31)

Jesus is speaking to a group of people who want to kill him. Their minds are made up. His word has no room among them (Jn 8:37). In this challenging encounter Jesus affirms his relationship with God and that he was sent by God to do his work.

Take a few moments to read and consider the Gospel of John 8:31-42. Do we have room in our hearts for the truth that Jesus reveals? What prevents us from getting to know Jesus? Do we allow technology, social media and other distractions to absorb time that might have once been used to notice or even reflect on the presence of God in and around us? If we look at ourselves honestly, how would the truth set us free? What would that mean in our lives and in our relationships with God and others?

THE TRUTH WILL SET
YOU FREE

Thursday, March 22

Time is precious! There are many ways to give alms during Lent, including giving of our time. Find a cause that helps others in need through the Corporal Works of Mercy: feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and imprisoned, and burying the dead. Ask friends and family to join you in proclaiming the Good News by helping others, giving of your time and talents. Make a list of agencies such as food banks and shelters. Choose a way you and your family and friends can work together to support those who need.

Friday, March 23

It's difficult to walk a mile while carrying a bag of rocks. The same is true of our spiritual journey. What rocks are we carrying that are holding us back? Are we holding on to rocks of anger, resentment, condemnation or un-forgiveness? What about prejudice, gossip, envy or indifference? Or maybe they are rocks of shame for past sins that God has forgiven but we refuse to let go of. Whatever they are, we need to let go of those rocks. The final penance service before Easter will be on Tuesday, March 27th at St. John Neumann in Mt. Laurel. It is here that you can let go of that rock, no matter how big, how heavy or how long you have been carrying it. Come and allow Christ to heal and forgive you.

Saturday, March 24

If you stop and think, things really haven't changed since Jesus walked the earth. Back then, the chief priests and the Pharisees did all they could to prevent people from following Jesus. In our time, we see Nativity scenes banned from public places, and the Ten Commandments removed from court houses. All in the name of not offending anyone. Imagine what Jesus is thinking. In the words of St. Paul, the perfect response is: "To God be the glory forever through Jesus Christ. Amen." (Romans 16:27)
