Dear Parishioners and Friends,

You have a vocation. We all do. As human beings, our “fundamental and innate” vocation is to love. (Check out the Catechism of the Catholic Church, paragraph #1604.) We believe this is so because we have been made in the image and likeness of God – who is love (see 1 John 4:8).

So, all human beings have something in common. We are all God’s children, we are all made in God’s image, and we are all therefore called to love. But Christians have another vocation, another calling that comes from our baptism.

For Christians, loving one another isn’t enough. Christians are commanded to love like Jesus. In today’s second reading from Scripture, we hear: “And his commandment is this: we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another just as he commanded us (1 John 3:23). This harkens back to Jesus who said: “This is my commandment: love one another as I love you (John 15:9 — we will hear this in next week’s Gospel passage!)

Wouldn’t you agree, then, that it is essential for a Christian to know how Jesus loved? We need to know this if we are going to love like Him.

I remember a while back when it was vogue for Christians to wear a bracelet with the letters: WWJD? — What Would Jesus Do?. That’s a great question but the only reason we ask it is to help answer another question: WWID? — What will I do? The answer is LLJ — Love Like Jesus.

Loving like Jesus begins with knowing Jesus. It would be good to pray each morning: “Lord Jesus, teach me to love like you. Holy Spirit, give me the strength today to love the way Jesus loves.” As always, in the Eucharist we find that strength.

Peace!

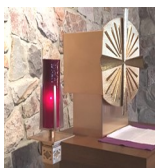

The Sisters, Deacons, Priests and Staff of St. Joan of Arc congratulate all of our children who celebrated their First Eucharist this weekend and last. May every Communion you receive bring you the same joy and peace as the First!
