BAPTISMS

We celebrate Baptisms most Sunday afternoons. The baptism of your child is a great time to renew your own faith in Jesus Christ. Call the Office to schedule at 856-983-0077

HOW TO BECOME CATHOLIC

We have special programs for children, teens and adults who would like to become Catholic or complete their Sacraments. Please call 856-983-0077.

LOVE IS IN THE AIR

Congratulations to all who have been recently engaged! We invite you to consider a Church wedding (contrary to what you may have heard, Church weddings do not have to be BIG church weddings!). We would be honored to help you prepare for your wedding day. Please call the Parish Office (ask for Pat—856.983.0077) at your earliest convenience. Marriage prep in the Church is easier (and more fun) than you may think!

CONSIDERING A DESTINATION WEDDING?

If you are considering a destination wedding, please give us a call to discuss available options to have your marriage blessed as one of the seven Sacraments. Even if you aren't sure what the Sacrament of Marriage is all about, give us a call. We think you will be pleasantly surprised!

ALREADY CIVILLY MARRIED?

Or married in another faith tradition? We would love to talk to you about having your marriage blessed in the Catholic Church.

Call today: 856.983.0077 Or Email: richard.laverghetta@stjoans.org jm.patilla@stjoans.org

GOSPEL

Mt 22: 15-21

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. And you are not concerned with anyone's opinion, for you do not regard a person's status. Tell us, then, what is your opinion: Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax." Then they handed him the Roman coin. He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

FAITH SHARING QUESTIONS

In today's gospel, the Pharisees, together with the Herodians, try to entrap Jesus by their question about the payment of taxes.

Jesus' answer to them changes their focus to the more important issue: We are called to love God and place God first in our lives.

In daily life, most of us have a number of responsibilities. Do we remember that God is our #1 priority?

Do we ask God for help with our chores and our choices or to give us strength or clarity each day?

Pray this week that we keep things in proper perspective, remembering to keep God first in our lives.

WE REMEMBER OUR BELOVED DECEASED

We will soon enter the month of November, a time to celebrate the souls of our faithfully departed. As a parish community, we remember these loved ones in a special way.

Beginning Wednesday, November 1st, please place pictures of your deceased loved ones in our Sanctuary (not just those who died this past year). These pictures will remain there throughout the month of November as a reminder that all the faithfully departed join us in prayer and praise each time we celebrate Mass.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

For Deceased Loved Ones • Nov. 2nd at 7:00PM

The entire community is invited to join us to remember and pray for those whom we have buried since last November. Please join your heart to those whose hearts are grieving. The service will be livestreamed to our website, Facebook & YouTube.

29th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME/2023 Two Real Worlds

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Jesus of Nazareth lived in the real world. Today's Gospel reading vividly illustrates this as Jesus is confronted by the Pharisees in a question about money.

The Pharisees are up to their old tricks, trying to trap Jesus. Is it lawful to pay taxes or not? Jesus asks to see a Roman coin (note: He doesn't have one on him). A Pharisee takes a coin out of his purse (note: he has one).

"Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar," Jesus says. "Give to God what belongs to God."

Jesus knows we live in a real world of money and business and earning a living and paying taxes and putting food on the table. Jesus also knows there is another real world, one beyond and bigger than the world that mints money.

Jesus does not tell us not to earn a living and put food on the table. He does tell us to give to God what belongs to God.

Our souls belong to God.

When we give our souls to anything or anyone other than God, we can usually expect to find trouble.

Is it possible to let the values of one real world (the one beyond and bigger) guide the decisions we make in the other real world (the one that requires a wallet)?

This is the question for us as individuals, for us as disciples, for us as a parish and Church. It is also a question for nations and rulers of people. When I consider all the recent atrocities and war in this real world, I wonder what kind of world we could make if we put into practice the values of the other real world, the one Jesus called "the Kingdom of God"? Peace, now more than ever!

Peace!

Fr. Rich

Please Note Change in Daily Mass Schedule This Week

This week only, daily Masses will be celebrated at the following times:

9am on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday 7am on Tuesday and Thursday.

We apologize for any inconvenience or confusion.

SYNOD NOTES

Synod

Synod members gather in Small Groups including Pope Francis sitting at the table to the right.

WALKING TOGETHER

Last Monday Fr. Rich spoke to "Women of Faith," a monthly faith enrichment program for women of our parish (which, by the way, has been meeting since 2008!). His topic was learning to walk together, which is a very Synodal theme.

He reflected a bit on the words like "Accompany" and "Companion," both which have in their Latin roots the word "panis," which means "bread." Some of us remember the beautiful hymn about the Eucharist called Panis Angelicus, "food of the angels." The Eucharist is indeed heavenly food, bread from heaven, and it is for us. Jesus gave us this greatest gift, His Body and Blood, to remember Him, and more: to participate in His life, as He participates in ours. Living in communion with Christ means learning to walk together as Jesus walked with so many.

Fr. Rich likened our walking together to a piano accompanist. He emphasized how walking together means making space for another, paying attention, listening without judgement and being flexible enough to follow another's agenda and not our own. As disciples of Christ, we are also called to help each other grow and mature in our walk with Lord.

The goal of the Synod, he said, is to help us be this kind of Church, one that goes out and meets people where they are, helping them to discover God in their journey.

For more information go to: www.synod.va

This week, Synod participants are reflecting on the theme: Co-responsibility in Mission—How can we live the call to be a listening Church that embodies co-responsibility in mission? How can we better share gifts and tasks in the service of the Gospel?

Gather. Pray. Listen.
