GOSPEL

Mt 21: 28-32

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: "What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He came to the first and said, 'Son, go out and work in the vineyard today.' He said in reply, 'I will not,' but afterwards changed his mind and went. The man came to the other son and gave the same order. He said in reply, 'Yes, sir,' but did not go. Which of the two did his father's will?" They answered, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Amen, I say to you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you. When John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him; but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him."

SYNOD PLUS

This Friday, October 6, in Pedata Hall at 9:45am, Fr. Rich kicks off our First Friday Series with a presentation on the Synod in Rome and also a look at past "big moments" in Church history and what they tell us about today. All are invited! Even if this doesn't make any sense to you, come! Sponsored by our Adult Faith Enrichment Team.

26th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME/2023

Doing Nothing is Not an Option

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

A few weeks ago, Fr. JM and I attended our Diocese of Trenton Priests Convocation. This year marked the 40th anniversary of these annual meetings. That means since my ordination in 1986, I have been around for 37 of them. In 1986, I was one of the youngest, if not the youngest, priest in the Diocese. Now, not quite in the oldest category, I am certainly moving in that direction!

Bishop O'Connell reported to us on the state of the Diocese, as he always does. There are currently 97 parishes in our Diocese (in 1986 the number was around 125). There are now 25 Catholic elementary schools (down from over 60). We currently have 198 Diocesan priests – 85 of whom are retired (the Bishop said that number will go up to 100 in several years – I am not sure if he included me in that number ... I have a little more than 7 to go). Not many parishes have an associate pastor; we are blessed to be one of them with Fr. JM here. Our Diocese currently has 16 seminarians. 32 priests work in our Diocese from Religious communities (i.e. Franciscans). 39 women Religious serve in active ministry (we are blessed to have 2 of them – Sr. Pat, our principal & Sr. Stephanie, our director of music; though officially retired, Sr. Peg continues to live with us, volunteering her time visiting the sick and homebound).

With approximately 700,000 Catholics in our four counties, we are the 20th largest Diocese in the USA. 13% of these Catholics attend Mass regularly (which is defined as "once a month"). This number is down from 20% back in 2010.

Obviously, much has changed. But as I listened to the Bishop speak, I began considering what our response, as clergy and people, has been to all this change. Not much, quite frankly, was my conclusion. Except to close & merge parishes and to sell Church property, I honestly can't think of much else that has changed in our response to dwindling numbers of people in the pews and fewer priests standing at the altar. We've all expressed our worries. We've all complained when our parish or school has been affected. We have tried various programs, many of them good. But other than that, I'm not sure much else has been done.

I don't think this is so because we do not care. If you are reading this letter, more than likely you care very much about our Catholic Church. I'm inclined to think, rather, that we do not feel very empowered. That there isn't much any one of us can do, is probably how most of us feel. This is why I have been so hopeful about the Synod on Synodality which began back in 2021 with listening sessions taking place in parishes all over the Catholic world (including ours!). This is why I will be paying close attention to work of the Synod of Bishops which begins this Wednesday. I believe the Holy Spirit is calling us to walk together as Church in new ways. We must not be afraid! I hope you will also join me in praying for all who are gathering with Pope Francis in Rome during the upcoming month. To help us, I've put a Synod Update in this bulletin. Thank you.

Peace!
Fr. Rich

SYNOD UPDATE

After the 2nd Vatican Council (1962-65), Pope St. Paul VI established the Synod of Bishops. Synod comes from a Greek word meaning “to journey together.” Every three years or so, a representative group of Bishops from around the world would meet in Rome to discuss with the Pope a specific topic of importance to the Universal Church. A few years ago, Pope Francis announced what he called a Synod on Synodality 2021-2024: Communion, Participation, Mission.

This Synod is different from others before it in that the Pope asked people all around the Church to gather in small groups to discuss both their joys and struggles in walking together as Church. Over 700,000 Catholics participated in this process from the United States alone. Reports from every Diocese in the world were gathered and eventually synthesized into Continental Reports. From this a draft document called Instrumentum Laboris will be discussed by the delegates at the upcoming Synod of Bishops which will take place from October 4-29 in Rome.

The Synod will have 364 voting members, plus Pope Francis, who is president of the Synod. Among the full members are 54 women, a first for this kind of gathering.

The total number of participants at the synod, however, is 464, of whom 81 are women; this number includes experts and fraternal delegates from other Christian groups including several Orthodox churches, the Anglican communion, World Methodist Council, World Communion of Reformed Churches, World Baptist Alliance, the World Pentecostal Fraternity and the Disciples of Christ.

Over the month-long gathering (Oct. 4-29) members will focus on five modules: (1) “toward a synodal church,” (2) communion, (3) mission, (4) participation and (5) a synthesis document.

Most of the work will be done in 35 small groups, each with a facilitator, divided according to language, using the methodology of “conversation in the Spirit,” characterized by “shared prayer with a view to communal discernment.” There will also be plenary sessions, at which the small groups will report back to the assembly. There will be five official language groups at the synod, but English will be the most-spoken language, followed by Italian. Documents will be produced in English and Italian.

Please pray by name for those attending the Synod from the USA:

Ms. Cynthia Bailey Manns, D.Min.
Sister Leticia Salazar, ODN
Richard Coll, USCCB
Wyatt Olivas, parish catechist, Wyoming
Julia Oseka, student at St. Joseph's University, Phil.
Bishop Timothy Broglio, military ordinary of the USA
Bishop Daniel Ernest Flores, Brownsville
Bishop Robert Emmet Barron, Winona-Rochester
Bishop Kevin Carl Rhoades of Fort Wayne-South Bend
Cardinal Timothy Michael Dolan, New York

Father James Martin, SJ
Cardinal Robert Walter McElroy, San Diego
Rev. Iván Montelongo, El Paso
Cardinal Seán Patrick O'Malley, OFM Cap, Boston

Eucharist – Bridge to Unity

September 2023

We Are Back!

Welcome back to a new school year! Classes have begun, and we are off to a great start! It was great to see our parents at Back to School night and Classroom Visitation nights. Our PTA is already busy getting ready for class spaghetti dinners, Fall Bag Bingo, and our Christmas Bazaar. Soccer and Volleyball teams have begun their seasons, and they are doing great! It has also been wonderful to be back in church together with our parishioners at Friday morning Mass. We look forward to all that the new school year brings as we embrace our school theme for the year: Eucharist - Bridge to Unity. Thank you to our parishioners for the many ways you support St. Joan of Arc School!

Class of 2024

Dear Parishioners,

Peace! And so it begins... the academic year 2023-2024 is well on its way. In three and a half weeks we have had 2 Staff Development Days, Opening Days for children, Back to School Night, Opening Liturgy, 2 Classroom Visitation Nights, not to mention tryouts for SJA Volleyball and Soccer, and all that is happening in each and every classroom. Blessed are we.

Our dedicated faculty and staff have worked, and continue to work, tirelessly for our children. Many activities are being planned as each month unfolds.

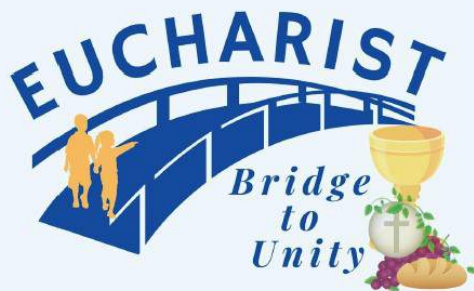

Special thanks to all of our parishioners for your continued prayerful and financial support of SJA School. Thank you for accompanying us as we work to bring our children closer to Jesus. We are particularly grateful for your support of our annual carnival. Whether you worked in a booth, in the kitchen, sold or purchased 50/50 tickets, helped with parking, took your kids on the rides, cleaned the food trays, set up, or cleaned up, we are grateful. Know that all the profit goes directly into our school budget which allows us to educate our children in our God-centered environment rooted in the Gospel of Jesus.

Our theme this year is EUCHARIST – Bridge to Unity. As we travel through this year of Eucharistic Revival, we hope our children, families, faculty, and staff will come to a deeper awareness, understanding of and appreciation for what it means to receive Eucharist regularly and be Eucharist daily.

Special thanks to Father JM who designed and built a 7-foot replica of the Golden Gate Bridge for our school. It is a great visual and reminder for all as we pass it each and every day. It is truly a work of art and love.

God's Blessings,
Sister Pat

Your generosity is always appreciated. Thanks in advance for your continued support for Life. God Bless.

The American Red Cross is experiencing a national blood shortage. Fewer donors than needed gave this summer, drawing down the national blood supply and reducing distributions of some of the most needed blood types to hospitals. Hurricane Idalia further strained the blood supply with blood drive cancellations and reduced blood and platelet donations in affected areas.
