HOW TO BECOME CATHOLIC

We have special programs for children, teens and adults who would like to become Catholic or complete their Sacraments.

Please call 856-983-0077.

LOVE IS IN THE AIR

Congratulations to all who have been recently engaged! We invite you to consider a Church wedding (contrary to what you may have heard, Church weddings do not have to be BIG church weddings!). We would be honored to help you prepare for your wedding day. Please call the Parish Office (ask for Pat—856.983.0077) at your earliest convenience.

Marriage prep in the Church is easier (and more fun) than you may think!

CONSIDERING A DESTINATION WEDDING?

If you are considering a destination wedding, please give us a call to discuss available options to have your marriage blessed as one of the seven Sacraments. Even if you aren't sure what the Sacrament of Marriage is all about, give us a call. We think you will be pleasantly surprised!

ALREADY CIVILLY MARRIED?

Or married in another faith tradition? We would love to talk to you about having your marriage blessed in the Catholic Church.

GOSPEL

Mt 21: 31-43

27th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME/2023

WHAT CAN WE LOSE?

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people: "Hear another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a tower. Then he leased it to tenants and went on a journey. When vintage time drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to obtain his produce. But the tenants seized the servants and one they beat, another they killed, and a third they stoned. Again he sent other servants, more numerous than the first ones, but they treated them in the same way. Finally, he sent his son to them, thinking, 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance.' They seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenants when he comes?" They answered him, "He will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper times." Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; by the Lord has this been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes? Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit."

FAITH SHARING QUESTIONS

This Gospel reminds us of the importance of listening to God's word. God speaks to us in many ways—through prayer, Scripture, through our Church tradition, through nature, through others. Do we make a point to listen to God daily so we can hear where God's gentle voice may be leading us?

We may throw ourselves into many things such as relationships, jobs, hobbies but in the end, all of our efforts could be for naught. How can God help us deal with poor results from a lot of effort?

DAILY ROSARY 2 PM MON—SAT

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION & BENEDICTION

Tuesday Evenings:
Eucharistic Adoration
5PM-6:30PM
Benediction
6:30PM

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

At some point all of us have lost something of value: our keys, our car, our wallet, our phone. Thankfully, the loss is usually temporary. But not always, of course. Sometimes we lose forever something of great value or even someone we love. Sometimes the losing can feel it has been taken from us. Either way, the consequences are life-changing.

Many times after losing something important or someone we love, we say: "I wish I had more time. I wish I had done things differently. If I had to do it all over again, I would have ..."

In today's Gospel, we get yet another parable of Jesus. It is about losing something valuable. The Kingdom of God.

There is nothing pretty in this parable. The closer Jesus gets to Jerusalem and the cross, the more pointed are His conversations with the religious leaders and the more graphic His parables become. This one — usually titled "The Wicked Tenants" has as much violence in it as a contemporary movie.

Maybe Jesus wants to tell us something. Losing the Kingdom of God would be devastating.

Maybe He is telling us it can happen even to us, especially when we don't pay attention to it, or pay more attention to other things. Like the things we want, as opposed to the things God desires for us.

Every athlete knows when you sit on the lead and only play defense, you lose the game. I see the current Synod in Rome as trying to get us, the Church, to stop playing defense, to stop sitting on the lead. We don't want to lose the Kingdom.

Peace!

Fr. Rich

DAILY MASS CHANGE THIS WEEK ...

On Monday, October 9, Mass will not be celebrated at 9am. Everyone is most welcome to join us for Morning Prayer with Holy Communion at 7am. Mass Intentions for Monday will be moved to Tuesday, October 10th at 9am. We apologize for the inconvenience this last minute change causes.

SYNOD NOTES

This Synod (2021-2024) is intended as a Synodal Process. The aim of this synodal process is not to provide a temporary or one-time experience of synodality, but rather to provide an opportunity for the entire People of God to discern together how to move forward on the path towards being a more synodal Church in the long-term. A basic question prompts and guides us: How does this journeying together allow the Church to proclaim the Gospel in accordance with the mission entrusted to Her; and what steps does the Spirit invite us to take in order to grow as a synodal Church?

Following Vatican II, Pope St. Paul VI convened the first Synod of Bishops. Below is a list of all the Synod of Bishops that have occurred since. Not included are other special Synods called to address the needs of a particular area of the world.

- 1967 I Preserving and Strengthening the Catholic Faith
- 1971 II The Ministerial Priesthood and Justice in the World
- 1974 III Evangelization in the Modern World
- 1977 IV Catechesis in our Time
- 1980 V The Christian Family
- 1983 VI Penance & Reconciliation in the Mission of the Church
- 1987 VII The Vocation and Mission of the Lay Faithful in the Church and the World
- 1990 VIII The Formation of Priests in the Circumstances of the Present Day
- 1994 IX The Consecrated Life and its role in the Church and the World
- 2001 X The Bishop: Servant of the Gospel of Jesus Christ for the Hope of the world
- 2005 XI The Eucharist: Source and Summit of the Life and Mission of the Church
- 2008 XII The Word of God in the Life and Mission of the Church
- 2012 XIII The New Evangelization for the Transmission of the Christian Faith
- 2015 XIV The Vocation and Mission of the Family in the Church and the Contemporary World
- 2018 XV Young People, Faith, and Vocational Discernment
- 2023 XVI For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, Mission

Please pray by name for those attending the Synod from the USA:

CELEBRATE DEACON SUNDAY BY CELEBRATING OUR DEACONS

This weekend, October 7-8, the Diocese of Trenton joins with parishes throughout the country to celebrate the second annual "Deacon Sunday." Here in our Diocese, there are currently 188 active permanent deacons and 85 retired in our 97 parishes. A deacon is an ordained minister of the Catholic Church and, therefore, a member of its clergy. There are three groups, or "orders," of ordained ministers in the Church: bishops, priests, and deacons. Deacons are ordained by the bishop as a sacramental sign to the Church and to the world of the Lord Jesus Christ, who came "to serve and not to be served." The entire Church is called by Christ to serve, and the deacon, in virtue of his sacramental ordination and through his various ministries, is to be a servant in a servant-Church.

There are two types of deacons in the Catholic Church: transitional deacons or those in the last stage of formation for priesthood and permanent deacons.

The office of deacon originated in the choosing of seven men by the Apostles, among them Stephen, to assist with the charitable work of the early church as recorded in Acts of the Apostles chapter 6. As ministries and numbers grew in the early Church so, too, did the presence of deacons to cooperate in these ministries with bishops and priests.

By around the fifth century, however, the number of deacons participating in a lifelong sacramental office in the Church began to diminish in favor of the diaconate as a "transitional" stage of priestly training. The Council of Trent (1545-1563) restricted ordination to the diaconate to men destined for the priesthood.

Four hundred years later, following the recommendation of the Second Vatican Council (1962-1965) in its Dogmatic Constitution on the Church Lumen Gentium 29, the "permanent diaconate" was restored as an office in the Church through an apostolic letter issued motu proprio by Pope St. Paul VI on June 18, 1967, The Sacred Order of the Diaconate Sacram Diaconatus Ordinem. Although not exclusively so, married men would henceforth be offered this vocational opportunity. There is actually no sacramental difference between permanent and transitional deacons.

Following their acceptance by a diocese, permanent deacons follow an intensive course of theological study and preparation, similar to their transitional counterparts in the seminary, designed to train them for their pastoral and ministerial duties.

Ordained by the bishop for his diocese, permanent deacons are most often assigned by him to parish ministries, customarily the parishes that sponsor their formation. The bishop can, however, assign them anywhere in his diocese. In the Diocese of Trenton, some parishes do not have permanent deacons and have requested their assignment.

At ordination, permanent deacons promise obedience to the bishop as well as the duty to pray the Liturgy of Hours daily and to live a life in conformity with their sacred office.

All ordained ministers in the Catholic Church are called to the functions of Word, Sacrament, and Charity, but bishops, priests and deacons exercise these functions in various ways. As ministers of Word, deacons proclaim the Gospel, preach, and teach in the name of the Church. As ministers of Sacrament, deacons baptize, lead the faithful in prayer, visit the sick, distribute communion at or after Mass, witness marriages, and conduct wake and funeral services. As ministers of Charity, deacons are leaders in identifying and, through their service, helping to meet the needs of others. But no matter what specific functions a deacon performs, they flow from his sacramental identity. In other words, it is not only WHAT a deacon does, but WHO a deacon is, that should be recognized and affirmed. Deacons can also be and often are a source of wise counsel and advice to pastors and parish committees, drawn from their experience "in the world."

The Diocese of Trenton is richly blessed by the pastoral and ministerial service of its deacons. We are grateful to them and their families for all that they do. As Bishop, I extend my blessing to them as we celebrate "Deacon Sunday" this year!

A Prayer for Deacons:

O Christ, you are the source of all ministries in the Church. In response to the needs of the People of God, through the laying on of hands and the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, you have called forth and ordained deacons as servants for our Church.

Continue to sustain those You have called to this ministry, so they remain ardent servants with gentle hearts, proclaiming the Gospel and serving at Your Holy table.

Help them reflect the real and true presence of Christ, the Deacon, to the needy among us. We also give thanks for those who accompany these men in their journey of service—their wives and families, their parish communities, and all those who call them to respond in faith, hope, and love.

Loving Savior, continue to help Your Church affirm our deacons in their service. Together as one family of faith, may all that we say and do give honor and glory to You and draw others ever closer to Your Sacred Heart. Amen.

(Prayer by Most Rev. Douglas Lucia, bishop of Syracuse, NY)

YOUTH FAITH FORMATION

ST. JOAN OF ARC SCHOOL

Our school Soccer and Volleyball teams are up and running. Special thanks to all the coaches who volunteer their time and skill. Be sure to come cheer on the teams!

A reminder that school will be closed on Monday, October 9th for Columbus Day/Indigenous Peoples' Day.

Kindergarten families! Let the PTA treat you to a spaghetti dinner while you gather to meet and dine with your child's friends and their parents. Join us Tuesday, October 10th at 6:15 pm in the cafeteria for a delicious meal!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION UPDATES

Fall Program 2023-2024 - Looking for volunteers! We are excited about the beginning of our upcoming fall program, and are looking for volunteers to join us! Our classes meet on Mondays and Tuesdays from 4:00-5:15pm for grades 1st through 5th, and on Mondays and Tuesdays from 7:00-8:15 for grades 6th through 8th. (Volunteers choose whichever session and day works best for their own schedules.) If you are interested in being a catechist (i.e., teacher), classroom aide, or hall monitor, please contact Jessica Donohue, Director, jessica.donohue@stjoans.org or by phone at 856-983-7575. Please note that all staff and volunteers who work with children must go through a background check (fingerprinting) and attend a Virtus workshop; these measures are Diocesan requirements which help us to maintain a safe environment for our students and volunteers.

An important note for families with children who have missed prior Religious Education -

We would love to have your family become a part of our program, and we have faith formation options for all children! Please contact us in the Religious Education Office or fill out the new family form at the link above so we can assist you. (You can also read about some of our options at the link above.)

WOMEN OF FAITH

Monday, October 16th 7pm

WE ARE CALLED TO WALK WITH GOD'S BELOVED CHILDREN

On Monday, October 16, the Women of Faith will meet from 7:00 - 8:30 pm in Pedata Hall. This season we are taking our inspiration from the beautiful hymn "We Are Called" to reflect on the ways God invites us to act out His love and care in this world.

This month's speaker is our wonderful pastor, Monsignor Richard LaVerghetta, who will discuss how "We Are Called To Walk with Each Other."

Our speaker will be followed by table discussions and fellowship. We also offer a Zoom meeting for those who would prefer to attend from home. We are always happy to welcome new and returning members, and our meetings are open to any of the women in your life you may wish to invite. Please contact Kathy Burns at (609) 923-7222 for more information or to sign up for our email list.

We would love to see you again or meet you for the first time on October 16!

SO MUCH MORE THAN A BIBLE STUDY

Come as you are.

YOU ARE WELCOME HERE

Our next meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 11th.

Please come prepared to discuss Lesson 2.

This week we will dive into our studies using our bibles for reference. We will read Lesson 2 in our study guides & answer the questions at the end of each section.

Opening Your Heart: Our Lesson this week, "Who is Jesus Christ", looks at Jesus being the Answer, our Fulfillment, our Savior and our Lord.

Keeping In Balance: Lesson 2, "Balance Through Priorities", looks at what it means to be authentic with God, self and others. How to embrace vulnerability, be free from shame and live out our true identity.

Living In The Father's Love: This week in Lesson 2, "What Kind of a Father is God?", we examine the truth of God's character and discuss how much He loves us but hates sin. He wants to set us free and show us how sin gets in the way of living in freedom.

MORNING PRAYER

7AM in Church
Every Monday,

The American Red Cross is experiencing a national blood shortage. Fewer donors than needed gave this summer, drawing down the national blood supply and reducing distributions of some of the most needed blood types to hospitals. Hurricane Idalia further strained the blood supply with blood drive cancellations and reduced blood and platelet donations in affected areas.

What's new for our parish Eucharistic Revival?

CHAPTER CHATS!

Come join us for a mini Fall book club.

In keeping with our Eucharistic Revival celebration, we will read and chat about Father Ronald Rolheiser's inspiring book, OUR ONE GREAT ACT OF FIDELITY—it's an easy read. Our discussions will be lively and fun since Father Ron shares his personal warmth and great insight about why Eucharist anchors our life, prayer, and ultimately the way we live our lives! He delves into the history and meaning of this sacred tradition. At the same time, Father Ron looks at other denominations' traditions around the Eucharist. Father Ronald Rolheiser is famous! He is a Catholic priest, a theologian, a sought-after speaker in the area of spirituality and religion in the secular world and is the President of the Oblate School of Theology in San Antonio, Texas. Father Ron is the author of numerous books, such as, The Holy Longing and The Restless Heart and he writes a weekly column that appears in more than 90 Catholic publications.

Our CHAPTER CHATS will be held

(choose either Tuesdays OR Thursdays):

TUESDAY EVENINGS: Oct. 17, 24 & Nov. 7, 14

7:00pm-8:30pm in Pedata Hall.

THURSDAY MORNINGS: Oct. 19, 26 & Nov. 9, 16

10am-11:30am in Knights Hall.

In order to provide the appropriate number of books, please REGISTER for our CHAPTER CHATS via email or phone: sueann.jeral@stjoans.org or (856) 983-0077, ext. 306. Once registered, you can pick up your book at our parish office (check our bulletin for hours) along with the list of chapters required to read each week. If you want to order your own book, Amazon sells them for $9.22. Can't wait to begin our chapter chats! Contact SueAnn for questions: sueann.jeral@stjoans.org

COMMUNITY SUNDAY

THIS WEEKEND!

Please join us in Pedata Hall after all Sunday Masses for donuts, coffee, and fellowship! Service hours are available for students! We hope to see you there!

We need your help to get the word out and share this invitation with anyone in our community who might benefit from this Thanksgiving Meal!

YOU ARE INVITED

Come and celebrate
Thanksgiving Dinner
at St. Joan of Arc!

November 23, 2023

Serving Time: 11:30 - 12:30

This Thanksgiving Dinner is intended for those who may be alone, or who are experiencing food insecurity, or for those unable to prepare the traditional meal themselves. You are invited whether you are a single person, with a partner, or family - not only a hot meal, but a good opportunity to enjoy some camaraderie with other members of the community. Deliveries will be made to anyone who is homebound.

Reservations Needed for either In Person Guests or Homebound:

There is no charge for this meal, but reservations are requested so that we can plan for the number of persons who would like to attend or need a meal delivered.

Reservations can be made by contacting Peg from St. Joan's (856) 298-5153 or email Thanksgiving@stjoans.org from October 1 through October 31. Please indicate your name, address (if Homebound), phone number, and number of guests.

Dinner will be served in St. Joan of Arc School Cafeteria
101 Evans Road Marlton, NJ 08053

Visit the National Shrine of St. Rita of Cascia

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14, 2023
8:30AM TO 3:00PM

DEPARTING FROM
CHRIST THE REDEEMER PARISH, ATCO, NJ
$28 PER PERSON

- Upper Shrine tour
- Lower Shrine - a place for quiet prayer
 - Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament
 - Opportunity for Confession
- Gift Shop Visit
- Mass at Noon
- Brown Bag lunch in the Cascia Center

As one of the few saints in our Catholic tradition who was a daughter, a wife, a mother, a widow, and an Augustinian nun, the unique story of Saint Rita's life offers us a beautiful example of perseverance, hope, and deep faith in the face of uncertainty, loss, and suffering. The National Shrine of Saint Rita of Cascia is a uniquely beautiful and peaceful destination in the heart of Philadelphia.

REGISTER TODAY

856-767-0719 or
ChristtheRedeemer.us/StRitaTrip

Assistant Shrine Director,
Fr. Bob Guessetto, O.S.A.
will offer a reflection on the life of St. Rita.
