GOSPEL

Mk 1: 12-15

The Spirit drove Jesus out into the desert, and he remained in the desert for forty days, tempted by Satan. He was among wild beasts, and the angels ministered to him.

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel." For this weekend's readings, click here.

FAITH SHARING QUESTIONS:

Mark's version of the temptation in the desert is brief and to the point. He does not offer many details of Jesus's experience of temptation. But Mark shows the consequences of Jesus' temptation, that is, Jesus then chooses to go to Galilee to declare the gospel of God: Repent and believe. Jesus knew there could be disastrous consequences for his choice, especially since John had been arrested.

Temptation always causes us to make a choice. We typically think of temptation as a negative but it also has a positive side since it causes us to choose. That choice can set us on a new path in life, may give us a clearer vision of who we want to be and how to live or can be disastrous.

What has been your strongest temptation most recently? What choice did you make regarding your temptation? Did that choice lead you down a different trajectory? If yes, explain. If not, explain what were the consequences of your choice. When you're tempted, what helps you choose the gospel of God? Was there a word, phrase or idea that popped out when you read Mark's gospel? If so, in what way do you think God could be speaking to your heart?

DID YOU KNOW ...

A beautiful painting of the Sacred Heart of Jesus has been a part of St. Joan of Arc's worship space for many decades? If you haven't noticed it, it is the painting over the votive candles. The Sacred Heart of Jesus is an image of Christ popular amongst Christians for many centuries. It is certainly worth a visit. It has helped so many people to find the loving, tender, compassion mercy of Jesus Christ, the same Savior whom we receive each time in Holy Communion.

THE HEART OF LENT

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Last Sunday you saw poinsettias in the sanctuary. Now it looks as barren as a desert. That's the point, I suppose. Lent always begins in the desert (see our Gospel, Mark 1: 12-15). Lent wants to help us strip away the unnecessary, the extra, the "bloat," whether it be weight or ego or just too much _____ (noise, stuff, anxiety, sin, temptation, or... you fill in the blank), to help us focus on what we really need and who we really are as disciples of Christ, the essentials, the heart of the matter.

That's why this Lent you will hear much about the Eucharist. Yes, we are still in the Eucharistic Revival. But, more importantly, it is the Eucharist that is at the heart of our Catholic prayer and worship. It is the Eucharist that sums up all that we believe about Jesus Christ and salvation and the Church. The Eucharist is at the heart of our journey together as a Spirit-filled community of disciples (which is, by the way, a very synodal way of looking at Church — and, yes, we are still in the midst of a Synod!)

If you are reading this you more than likely go to Sunday Mass. If not, please come. Come to the table! Come to the Supper of the Lamb! Come and be fed the food of life for here and for ever! (If you are still livestreaming because of illness or infirmity, please keep livestreaming. But if you are livestreaming because it is easier, please do the harder thing ... come! We want and need you here!)

Each day during Lent we will be reflecting on a Eucharistic word or phrase a day via our website and social media. On Sundays in the bulletin I will reflect at greater length on that Sunday's "word."

It is truly my hope and prayer that by the end of this Lent, by Easter, each of us would know so much more about the Eucharist that we could, if not teach a class about it, we could talk to our family and friends about what it is and what it means to us. Furthermore, I hope and pray, as our love for the Eucharist deepens, so too does our love for the Lord Jesus Christ. For this is what Lent and the Eucharist both share: they both want to help form within us the Heart of Christ!

Let's Lent Together!

1st Sunday of Lent's Eucharistic Word:

Real Presence

“In the celebration of the Eucharist, bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit and the instrumentality of the priest. The whole Christ is truly present — body, blood, soul, and divinity — under the appearances of bread and wine, the glorified Christ who rose from the dead. This is what the Church means when she speaks of the "Real Presence" of Christ in the Eucharist.” (United States Bishops)

FOR PRAYER AND REFLECTION:

Practicing Real Presence

To understand the Eucharist, we begin with “real presence.” What does it mean to be really present to another? What are the characteristics of “real presence?” How would you describe what it means to be really present?

What does it feel like when someone is in your company but not “really there”? Have you yourself been speaking with someone though you are “far, far away?”

How about with God? What do you think it means that God desires to be with you, really present to you? Can this even be a definition of prayer — prayer as discovering God’s presence? Or, also, prayer as being present to God?

If the Eucharist is our teacher, perhaps this Blessed Sacrament wants to teach us how to be really present to each other the way our living God knows and loves us. It wants to teach us how to be really present to family and friend and neighbor, and even to those not in the room, to the unseen, the lost, the stranger, to even the foe.

Today’s Gospel and the Eucharist
(Mark 1:12-15):

Before Jesus is baptized, Mark tells us it is into the desert that Jesus goes to prepare for His work, His ministry.

How can the desert — where there is a lack of food and drink — say anything to us about the Eucharist?

Sometimes we must go without to realize what is most important, what is most needed, even what we are all about.

Often, it is in our “desert moments,” when we feel most alone, most vulnerable, that we recognize the true presence of God — that we are never really alone and that it is God alone who can sustain us and give us life.

The Eucharist is all about real relationship. Christ gives Himself to us as true food and true drink so that we might be fed, nourished and strengthened by His presence and love.

In the Eucharist, we meet Christ — God who is with us, God who is truly present to us, and who desires us to be truly present to Him and to one another!

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

1374 The mode of Christ's presence under the Eucharistic species is unique. It raises the Eucharist above all the sacraments as "the perfection of the spiritual life and the end to which all the sacraments tend." In the most blessed sacrament of the Eucharist "the body and blood, together with the soul and divinity, of our Lord Jesus Christ and, therefore, the whole Christ is truly, really, and substantially contained." "This presence is called 'real' - by which is not intended to exclude the other types of presence as if they could not be 'real' too, but because it is presence in the fullest sense: that is to say, it is a substantial presence by which Christ, God and man, makes himself wholly and entirely present."

"Since Christ Himself has said, 'This is My Body,' who shall dare to doubt that it is His Body?"

(St. Cyril of Jerusalem)

What is real?

It is a pertinent question. With the advent and, some would say, explosion, of artificial intelligence, the lines of what is real and what is contrived have become quite blurry. When it is so easy to doubt whether what we see in a photo is actually real, no wonder it is easy for so many today to question the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

But what happens at the altar during every Mass is not trick photography. It is not magic. It is mystery. (Mystery will be, in fact, one of the words we explore this Lent.)

This we cannot doubt: it is certainly a matter of faith to believe in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

Faith gives us new eyes with which to see the world and each other. No wonder Jesus healed so many who were blind. Jesus wants us to see beyond appearance, beyond human limits and worldly boundaries, to see there is a greater Presence, a greater Truth, a greater Love, One that is not distant or unknowable, but One so close, so deep within all life, within each of us, One that has a name, Christ Jesus. This is the One who enters our heart and invites us into His divine heart each time we receive Holy Communion.

In the Eucharist, we adore Christ, we receive Christ and we become Christ for others.

LOVE IN ACTION - A NEW MINISTRY!

Our parish is excited to launch a new social justice ministry called LOVE IN ACTION: Life, Justice and Creation. Our ministry will be grounded in our baptismal call as Christians to care for one another and our planet Earth.

Please join us for our first meeting on Thursday, February 29th at 7pm in Pedata Hall to hear what we have in mind and to brainstorm about what you may have in mind for our new ministry. If you have any questions please contact SueAnn at sueann.jeral@stjoans.org.

You are invited to join a community of like-minded Catholic men who share their faith, hands, hearts, and prayers, providing support and communing with each other. You can also bring your families along and get to know other members. Membership is FREE to join online, and you can request to join anytime.
