HOW TO BECOME CATHOLIC

We have special programs for children, teens and adults who would like to become Catholic or complete their Sacraments.

Please call 856-983-0077.

LOVE IS IN THE AIR

Congratulations to all who have been recently engaged! We invite you to consider a Church wedding (contrary to what you may have heard, Church weddings do not have to be BIG church weddings!). We would be honored to help you prepare for your wedding day. Please call the Parish Office (ask for Pat—856.983.0077) at your earliest convenience.

Marriage prep in the Church is easier (and more fun) than you may think!

CONSIDERING A DESTINATION WEDDING?

If you are considering a destination wedding, please give us a call to discuss available options to have your marriage blessed as one of the seven Sacraments. Even if you aren't sure what the Sacrament of Marriage is all about, give us a call. We think you will be pleasantly surprised!

ALREADY CIVILLY MARRIED?

Or married in another faith tradition? We would love to talk to you about having your marriage blessed in the Catholic Church.

GOSPEL Luke 23:1-49

The elders of the people, chief priests and scribes, arose and brought Jesus before Pilate. They brought charges against him, saying, "We found this man misleading our people; he opposes the payment of taxes to Caesar and maintains that he is the Christ, a king." Pilate asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" He said to him in reply, "You say so." Pilate then addressed the chief priests and the crowds, "I find this man not guilty." But they were adamant and said, "He is inciting the people with his teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee where he began even to here."

On hearing this Pilate asked if the man was a Galilean; and upon learning that he was under Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod who was in Jerusalem at that time. Herod was very glad to see Jesus; he had been wanting to see him for a long time, for he had heard about him and had been hoping to see him perform some sign. He questioned him at length, but he gave him no answer. The chief priests and scribes, meanwhile, stood by accusing him harshly. Herod and his soldiers treated him contemptuously and mocked him, and after clothing him in resplendent garb, he sent him back to Pilate. Herod and Pilate became friends that very day, even though they had been enemies formerly. Pilate then summoned the chief priests, the rulers, and the people and said to them, "You brought this man to me and accused him of inciting the people to revolt. I have conducted my investigation in your presence and have not found this man guilty of the charges you have brought against him, nor did Herod, for he sent him back to us. So no capital crime has been committed by him. Therefore I shall have him flogged and then release him."

But all together they shouted out, "Away with this man Release Barabbas to us." — Now Barabbas had been imprisoned for a rebellion that had taken place in the city and for murder. — Again Pilate addressed them, still wishing to release Jesus, but they continued their shouting, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" Pilate addressed them a third time, "What evil has this man done? I found him guilty of no capital crime. Therefore I shall have him flogged and then release him." With loud shouts, however, they persisted in calling for his crucifixion, and their voices prevailed. The verdict of Pilate was that their demand should be granted. So he released the man who had been imprisoned for rebellion and murder, for whom they asked, and he handed Jesus over to them to deal with as they wished.

As they led him away they took hold of a certain Simon, a Cyrenian, who was coming in from the country; and after laying the cross on him, they made him carry it behind Jesus. A large crowd of people followed Jesus, including many women who mourned and lamented him. Jesus turned to them and said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep instead for yourselves and for your children for indeed, the days are coming when people will say, 'Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed.' At that time people will say to the mountains, 'Fall upon us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us!' for if these things are done when the wood is green what will happen when it is dry?" Now two others, both criminals, were led away with him to be executed.

When they came to the place called the Skull, they crucified him and the criminals there, one on his right, the other on his left. Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do." They divided his garments by casting lots. The people stood by and watched; the rulers, meanwhile, sneered at him and said, "He saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God." Even the soldiers jeered at him. As they approached to offer him wine they called out, "If you are King of the Jews, save yourself." Above him there was an inscription that read, "This is the King of the Jews."

Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us." The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply, "Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation? And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, but this man has done nothing criminal." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise." It was now about noon and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon because of an eclipse of the sun. Then the veil of the temple was torn down the middle. Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit"; and when he had said this he breathed his last.

Here all kneel and pause for a short time.

The centurion who witnessed what had happened glorified God and said, "This man was innocent beyond doubt." When all the people who had gathered for this spectacle saw what had happened, they returned home beating their breasts; but all his acquaintances stood at a distance, including the women who had followed him from Galilee and saw these events.

Palm Sunday 2025

THE DIFFERENCE ONE WEEK CAN MAKE

Dear Pilgrims of Hope,

It is vital that we as people of faith, people who believe in and follow Jesus, it is vital that we live this week differently than any other week. This week we remember, celebrate and enter into the mystery of Christ's passion (his suffering and death) and resurrection. We call this the Paschal (Easter) Mystery.

How different will your Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and Easter be from any other day. We are celebrating God's eternal and saving love for all humanity through Christ our Lord. God's love is stronger than death! Suffering leads to new life. We have been given new life in Christ.

How different will your dinner table look on Holy Thursday? To commemorate the Last Supper, set your table differently. Place a cross as a centerpiece. Offer prayers for the parish and the whole Church as part of grace. Gather for the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper at 2pm. Visit three or more churches that evening.

How different will your day look on Good Friday? Kids should be taught to mark the day Jesus was crucified as a solemn one, especially during the hours of noon until three (His hours on the cross). Less technology, or none. Make it an unplugged day. No sports or practices. Join us for the Main Service of the day at 3pm when we hear the story of the Passion and venerate the Cross. We also have Stations of the Cross at 12:05pm and an evening service called Tenebrae at 7pm (those who work and can't make the afternoon Service will have an opportunity to venerate the Cross). Of course, Good Friday is another day of fasting (simpler meals) and abstaining from meat.

How will your Holy Saturday look? Certainly there might be a lot of preparation going on for the Easter meal. Cooking and cleaning and setting things up. We will bless Easter foods at 10am in the Church. It's optional but if you can keep the Paschal Fast going, that would be great (this is the fast that began on Good Friday — simpler meals and no meat).

Of course, Holy Saturday night brings the Great Easter Vigil at 8pm, during which we baptize and confirm adults who are entering the Church. It is a beautiful Mass beginning in our gym, moving outside for the lighting of the Easter Fire. Plan on 2 hours for the Mass.

Easter Sunday doesn't need fireworks — the day itself is an explosion of joy and peace! How will you participate in it? Begin here with Mass and then, of course, join with family and friends for an Easter Feast!! It is the Feast of God's Eternal Love and Life!

May it be a life-changing week for all of us!

Pilgrim-Partner Project Lent 2025

As disciples of Christ, we pray for and with each other. This year we pray that all might have hope, a hope that comes from a relationship with God who promises, through Christ, to be with us always. During this Lent, let's journey with those who might need the gift of hope in their lives.

On this Palm Sunday, we pray for ABUSED CHILDREN

A child abused is a child abandoned. Abandoned by those who are trusted, who are supposed to protect and keep them safe — a parent, relative, clergy, coach, teacher. Abandoned, too, it can feel, by God.

Palm Sunday is a day of abandonment. Jesus is betrayed by a follower. His friends deny and desert Him. Jesus is stripped of his clothes and His dignity, insulted, ridiculed, mocked. None but a handful of women and one apostle, remain with Him until the end. Even from the cross, Jesus cries out to God: "Why have you abandoned me?"

As we walk with Christ today into Jerusalem, as we walk with Him to the Cross, we walk with all the young of this world who have been abused and abandoned by those closest to them. They are our Pilgrim Partners as we begin Holy Week: Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory be...

SSJ Neighborhood Center

SSJ Neighborhood Center
1 day ago

The Love In Action Group from Saint Joan of Arc Parish in Marlton, NJ has been true to their name. Since the fall, members of the group have encouraged various collections in the parish that have benefited Neighbors of all ages. The diapers, wipes, children's books and Bamba socks were a true blessing for our Moms and our youngest Neighbors. Warm clothing for toddlers up to adults have helped to keep our Neighbors comfy during the winter months. The group's assistance did not stop with the collections, they also came to the Neighborhood Center and helped to sort the items that were collected. Their service and presence with us and our Neighbors is truly a gift of "love in action", the heart and hands of Jesus... and we are grateful for their generous spirits.

STEWARDSHIP

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

As disciples we are called to be faithful stewards of our time, talent and treasure.

April 5/6$18,616
Electronic Giving$12,145

Note: On both Palm Sunday and Easter, our ushers will take up a collection “the old way” by passing baskets during the Offertory. Of course, those who wish to use the collection box in the vestibules, or give online are certainly welcome to continue to do that.

Thank you for your generous support of our Parish.

Annual Catholic Appeal: This year’s goal is $116,000. Information about the appeal and pledge cards can be found in each of the vestibules. You can send your pledge directly to the Diocese of Trenton ACA, drop pledge card in donation box or send it to the parish offices and we will gladly send it to the Diocesan office for you.

To date, pledges received amount to $64,536 (56%) from 243 donors. This year, pledges to the ACA must be received by July 31st to be counted towards reaching our Parish goal.

EXCITING NEWS!

RELIEF ON THE WAY FOR YOUR KNEES!

We are installing brand new kneelers on all the Church pews! Current kneelers have been breaking for some time now and replacement parts have been difficult to find; and, as your knees have been telling you, the pads in many places are getting painfully thin. To cover the cost ($70,000) we are using money from generous bequests and last year's Annual Catholic Appeal rebate. From Easter Monday, April 21 through Easter Friday, April 25, the Church building will be closed. We will celebrate Morning Prayer and Daily Mass (and funerals) in Pedata Hall. Weekend liturgies will not be affected. Daily mass will continue to be livestreamed. Thank you for your patience.

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS To publish an announcement in the bulletin, please send requests to publications@stjoans.org. All requests must be submitted by Monday at Noon before the weekend you would like them published.
