Marriage prep in the Church is easier (and more fun) than you may think!

CONSIDERING A DESTINATION WEDDING?

If you are considering a destination wedding, please give us a call to discuss available options to have your marriage blessed as one of the seven Sacraments. Even if you aren't sure what the Sacrament of Marriage is all about, give us a call. We think you will be pleasantly surprised!

MINISTRARE NON MINISTERARI

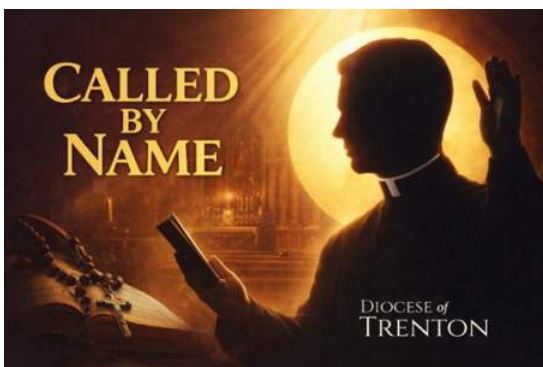

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ, The Diocese of Trenton has been blessed with hundreds of wonderful priests throughout the last two centuries. To continue these blessings, I am announcing a Called By Name campaign for next weekend, April 25 & 26. Fittingly, that weekend is also Good Shepherd Weekend.

As your Bishop, I am asking you to prayerfully reflect on anyone that you may have encountered in the parish, at home, or even yourself, who you think may have a vocational call to the priesthood. Throughout the Diocese next weekend, our priests will be preaching on vocations and the call to the priesthood. Cards will be distributed throughout the pews and churches which will enable you to nominate or recommend a young man, with his contact information, whom you think might be called to the priesthood.

After gathering all the submitted names and contact information, the Vocations Office will reach out to them and invite them to a special day of prayer and reflection on June 12, the Solemn Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, to open their hearts and minds to God's potential call to the priesthood. This initiative is near and dear to my own heart. While I was President of Catholic University, this campaign proved to be effective in leading many young men to enter the seminary and eventually to be ordained. I invite you to prayerfully participate in this holy effort.

Sincerely Yours In Christ,

Most Reverend David M. O'Connell, C.M., J.C.D.
Bishop of Trenton

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER/2026

RECOGNIZING CHRIST

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Is it Him? Could it really be Him?

Recognizing Christ is a theme in all of the accounts of Jesus' post-resurrection appearances. Mary Magdalene first thinks it might be the gardener. In today's passage from Luke, two disciples are joined in conversation by a very well informed stranger.

Mary recognizes Christ when He speaks her name. The two disciples on the road to Emmaus recognize Him in the breaking of bread, in Eucharist. Last Sunday we heard Thomas recognized Christ by His wounds.

Three ways.

Word. Sacrament. Wounds.

Three ways then, three ways today to encounter, experience and recognize the presence of Christ in our midst.

The Word of God ... a Word proclaimed from Scripture and preached and taught by the Church. It is Christ himself, God's Word, speaking to us.

Sacrament ... in the Eucharist, at Mass, in the gathering of the faithful, sharing in this sacred Meal, being fed by Christ Himself, nourished by His body and blood so that we can love as He loves.

Wounds ... Christ is recognized by His wounds. This shouldn't be altogether surprising. While Jesus walked and taught in His ministry, how many times did He tell us to find Him in the poor, the suffering, the outcast, the lost?

Every time we meet Christ, in Word, in Sacrament, in another, our hearts should be set on fire with love and the direction of the rest of the day, and the rest of our life, should be changed.

KEEP EASTER GOING!

Fr. Rich

7AM in Church
Monday,
Wednesday, Friday

Join us as we lift up our prayer petitions for each other along with receiving the Eucharist. A beautiful way to start the morning with the Psalms and praising God.

A Reflection by Bishop O'Connell on recent public criticism of the Holy Father and the tragedy of war

In recent days, many of the faithful in the Diocese have reached out to me as Bishop and Shepherd of the local Church with concern, confusion, sorrow, and, in some cases, even anger regarding public comments made by President Donald Trump about our Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, as well as the Holy Father's measured response. Moments like these can unsettle hearts, especially when the unity of the Church and the dignity of her mission appear to be drawn into the turbulence of political discourse.

At the same time, our world is shaken by the ongoing war in Iran — an urgent conflict that has already claimed human lives and threatens to destabilize an entire region. In the midst of such suffering, the Church's mission remains clear: to proclaim peace, to defend human dignity and to guide the faithful with confidence in times of uncertainty.

As your Bishop and Shepherd, I offer clarity, reassurance and a call to deeper Christian witness.

The Catholic Church's mission does not depend on political approval or cultural consensus. She has lived through emperors, kings, presidents, revolutions, persecutions, and cultural upheavals — and she endures both praise and scorn. Through it all, her mission remains the same: to proclaim Jesus Christ, to defend the dignity of every human person, and to guide souls toward salvation. This is precisely why the Church is not identified with any political community or bound to any political system; rather, she remains a sign and safeguard of the transcendent dignity of the human person.

So, when any public figure — regardless of office or influence — speaks critically of the Holy Father, it does not diminish the authority entrusted to the Successor of Peter, nor does it remove the Church's responsibility to speak the truth in charity, especially when truth challenges powerful interests. Moreover, the Church herself has a true freedom to preach the faith, teach her social doctrine, and pass moral judgment when fundamental rights of the person or the salvation of souls require it.

The Holy Father's response to recent criticism has reflected qualities that have marked his pontificate: humility, clarity, and genuine pastoral concern. He did not return insult for insult, nor did he allow himself to be drawn into the combative tone so often present in public life.

Instead, he reaffirmed the Church's teaching, emphasized the need for moral leadership rooted in the Gospel, and invited all people — including leaders of nations — to a renewed commitment to peace, justice, compassion and the common good. This is the way of Christ: correcting without humiliating, challenging without condemning, and calling every person to conversion.

The war in Iran weighs heavily on the conscience of the global Church. Catholic moral teaching offers principles that help us understand how to respond with truth and charity:

-The dignity of every human life. Every person — pope or president, soldier or civilian, American, Israeli, Iranian, and all peoples — is created in the image of God. The loss of life and the suffering of the innocent are tragedies that call for prayer, solidarity, and moral clarity.

-The Church's "just war" teaching. The Church does not promote war; rather, legitimate defense requires strict moral conditions. Even in war, the moral law remains binding: "The mere fact that war has regrettably broken out does not mean that everything becomes licit between the warring parties." Legitimate defense also requires rigorous moral evaluation of the damage caused, the impracticality of other means, serious prospects of success, and the requirement that the use of arms not produce evils and disorders graver than the evil to be eliminated — judgments entrusted to those responsible for the common good.

-Peace is more than the absence of violence. True peace is not merely "the absence of war," but a tireless commitment to recognize, protect, and restore the dignity of those who are vulnerable and overlooked. Peace must therefore be pursued through justice, dialogue, and concrete efforts to protect the dignity of the person.

-Solidarity and prayer. Catholics are called to stand with those who suffer: to support humanitarian efforts, advocate for peace and pray for those caught in violence.

In all of this, the Church does not take sides in partisan political struggles. She takes the side of the humans, especially the vulnerable, and seeks the good of all.

As Catholics, we must resist the temptation to view the Church through the lens of partisan politics. The Pope is not a political rival; he is the spiritual father of the universal Church. Harsh or dismissive criticism wounds not only the person of the Pope but also the unity of believers and obscures the Church's witness.

At the same time, our unity as Catholics does not mean silence in the face of moral truth. The Church calls us to speak truth with knowledge of what she teaches and why — and always with respect, especially when defending the Holy Father and the faith.

Every public official has a responsibility to lead with integrity, prudence, and respect for institutions that serve the common good. When disagreements arise between civil leaders and the Church, they should be addressed with seriousness and mutual respect rather than inflammatory language.

The Church prays for those who govern, including the leaders of all countries, and she will also continue to speak boldly and courageously when moral truth is at stake. These two responsibilities are not opposed; they belong together, because charity does not mean compromising justice and fidelity to prayer does not mean abandoning the duty to speak truth.

In the present moment of world-wide concern, I invite every Catholic in our Diocese to pray for:

- Our Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, that the Holy Spirit may strengthen him with wisdom and courage;
- President Donald Trump, that he may be guided by truth, wisdom, justice, and a genuine commitment to the common good;
- All those suffering because of war, especially the innocent, that God will protect them and provide relief;
- World leaders, that they may pursue peace with sincerity and resolve;
- Our nation, that we may resist division and rediscover the dignity of respectful dialogue;
- The Church, that we may remain united in faith, hope, and charity.

Remember: our unity as a Church and as a Diocese is not founded on political alignment, but on our shared identity as disciples of Jesus Christ. I share the concern about what was said about Pope Leo XIV by President Trump and the manner in which it was said. I do not like it nor do I believe it to be true. Those comments remind us that the Church's voice is not always welcomed — but it must always remain faithful. Pope Leo XIV has offered us an example of calm, principled leadership. We should follow that example by responding not with anger or fear, but with steadfast faith and renewed commitment to the Gospel.

You are initiated to an Initiation Ceremony when you will learn about the history and core principles of the Knights of Columbus and become a member of our local parish council. This is a great way to put your faith into action and join a great group of guys working together to support our parish, church and community here at St. Joan of Arc.

Your family and friends are welcome to attend.

THE BIG SPRING CLEAN-UP

OF THE PARISH GROUNDS Saturday, APRIL 25, 10AM – 2PM

Spring is here and it's time to clean up the parish grounds and we need your help

"GARDENING IS GOOD FOR THE SOUL.
IT'S LIKE A PARTNERSHIP WITH GOD"

There will be a general clean-up of the parish grounds. There is no heavy landscaping involved, just the removal of dead plants, raking, trimming, general pick up of debris. This is a great way of getting the parents and kids involved in the parish and outdoors. Please bring your own gardening tools. Community hours for young people will be available.

If you are interested in making our parish grounds a work of beauty, please contact Betty Mills (856-596-0407) or oce1048@aol.com

Thursday, April 23rd 7:30 PM Pedata Hall

All are welcome to join us on Thursday, April 23rd at 7:30pm in Pedata Hall as we will be showing

"The King Of Kings."

THE GREATEST STORY EVER TOLD. A father tells his son the greatest story ever told, and what begins as a bedtime tale becomes a life-changing journey. Through vivid imagination, the boy walks alongside Jesus, witnessing His miracles, facing His trials, and understanding His ultimate sacrifice. The King of Kings invites us to rediscover the enduring power of hope, love, and redemption through the eyes of a child.

Bring the entire family! Come Hungry! Lite refreshments will be served.

Plan to be fed not just with food.
